ALBERT BROS., INC. ANNOUNCES THE ADDITION OF JEFF LIEBERMAN AS VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMERCIAL STRATEGY

Jake Albert Continues as Senior Vice President, Leading the Company's Fifth Generation

WATERBURY, CT — September 25, 2026 — Albert Bros., Inc. (ABI), a multi-generational, family-owned leader in the metals recycling industry, today announced that Jeff Lieberman has joined the company as Vice President of Commercial Strategy effective September 8, 2026.

As part of its long-term growth strategy, Jeff brings to ABI over eighteen (18) years of experience in the metals recycling industry. Mr. Lieberman most recently served as Head of Non-Ferrous Trading at Greenwich Metals, Inc., where he built a reputation for deep market expertise, disciplined risk management, and strong relationships across the domestic and international metals community. In his new role at ABI, Mr. Lieberman will lead sales strategy, key account development, and commercial growth initiatives across the company's ferrous and non-ferrous operations.

"I'm honored to join a company with such a strong family legacy, history of making an impact in its local community and a steadfast dedication to being an industry leader with respect to safety, environmental responsibility and working as a long term partner to its customers," said Jeff Lieberman. "I'm looking forward to building on that foundation alongside Eric Albert (President), Jake Albert (Senior Vice President), Nicholas Morin (Vice President), and the rest of the company's dedicated team members."

A Commitment for Future Generations

Albert Bros., Inc. has remained a family-owned and operated business across five (5) generations, a legacy the company considers vital to its identity and its relationships with employees, customers, and the community. As ABI continues to grow and innovate, its fifth generation remains focused on shaping its future in an ever changing and complex landscape. With Jake Albert serving as Senior Vice President and one of the standard-bearers, alongside his sister, Sarah Albert, and brother-in-law, Matthew Cantatore, this growing team reflects a broader, deliberate approach to ensuring the business remains strong, at the forefront of its industry, and true to its founding values well into the future.
